

Bakhmeteff, former Russian ambassador to the United States and Mme. Bakhmeteff, sister of John R. McLean, attend the William B. Leeds and Xenia wedding in Paris.

The prize Japanese baby in America. His name is Shegeo Yamane and he lives in Los Angeles, Calif., where the first Japanese baby show was held in this country. The two-year-old Jap was declared the "strong man" of the show.

International.

Gen. Luden, talking to Rupprecht, in Munich to attend the coronation of the king.

© Keystone View Co.

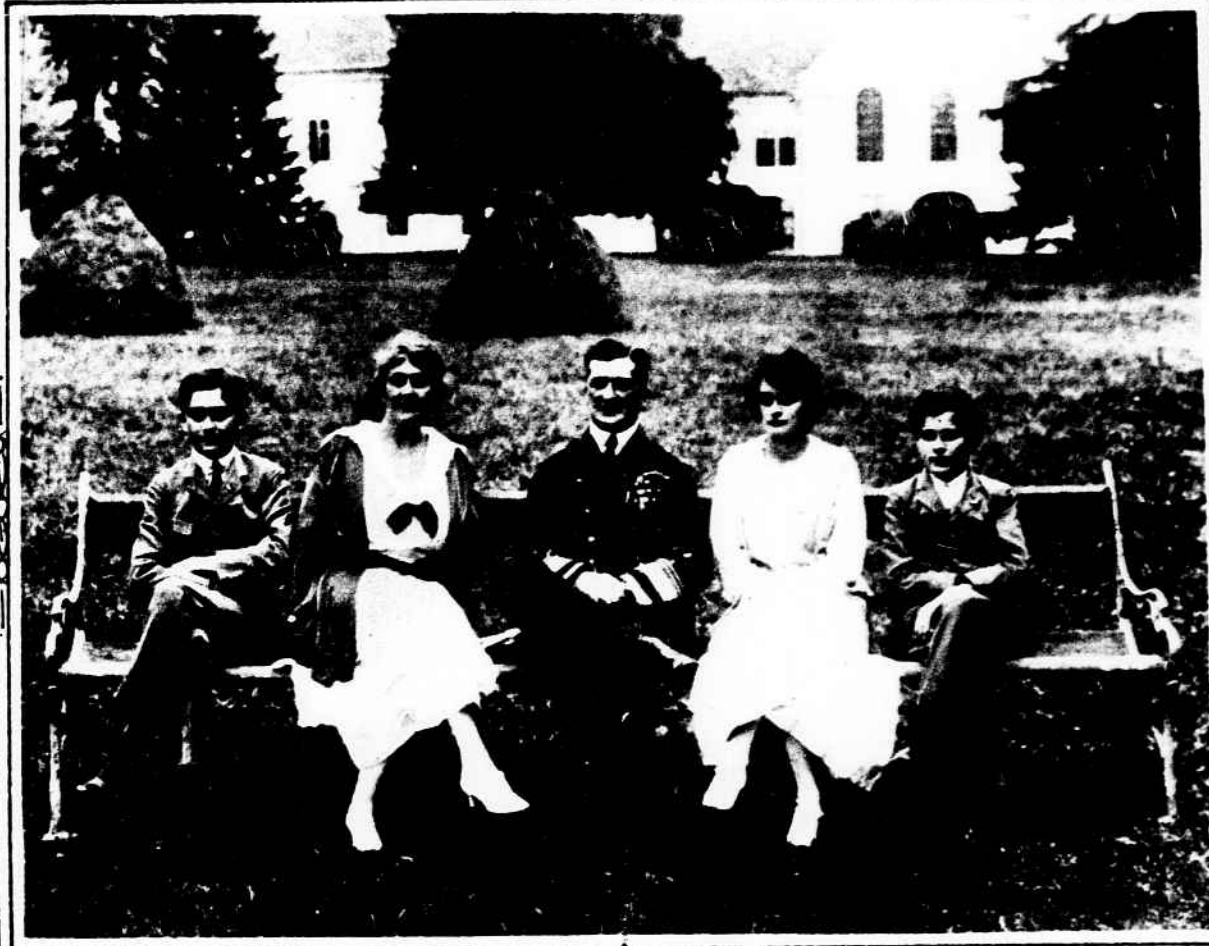

Modern dancers find inspiration in all sorts of things, but the latest is the "museum inspiration." These San Francisco girls, members of the Marion Morgan dancers, take the pose of a marble group, Daphne and Apollo.

Underwood & Underwood.

The fox makes a delightful pet, according to Miss Annie Malken of 3213 Q street. The animal, when only a few weeks old, was caught by a boy near Middleburg, Va., brought to Washington and raised like a puppy.

National Photo Co.

Admiral Horthy, regent of Hungary, and his family, who stood firmly against the recent attempt of monarchists to regain the throne. Left to right: Nicholas, jr., Mme. Horthy, Admiral Horthy, Margot and Stephen.

© Keystone View Co.

"Autumn Days." Photograph by W. E. McBath, 512 2d street northwest, winner of The Star's weekly prize of $10 for the best amateur photograph.

Miss Becky Lanier, society equestrienne of New York and Greenwich, Conn., with some of her sixth trophies. She has also taken more than 500 ribbons at horse shows. She holds the J. Campbell Thompson trophy for the grand champion hunter. Becky has been riding horses since she was five years of age.

Underwood & Underwood.

child labor, capital stock and estate tax divisions of the internal revenue bureau.

They've changed a bit since this photograph was taken, for you'll hardly recognize the three children of King George and Queen Mary of England. Prince Albert, now the Duke of York, at left; Princess Mary in center, and the Prince of Wales at right.

International.